One Day Workshop on,
'Union Budget: Various Aspects'
Report
10 February 2024.

Department of Economics, Baburaoji Gholap College Sangvi, Pune, and Ambedkar College Aundh, Pune., have been signed an MOU to conduct the activities jointly for the students of UG and PG. In the academic year 2023-24 both colleges jointly organized the workshop on, 'Union Budget: Various Aspects' on February 10, 2024.

❖ Objectives of the workshop:

- ❖ To understand the basic concept for preparing the Union Budget.
- ❖ To understand various concepts of budget.
- ❖ To know the sources of Revenue, Expenditure and Debt of Govt. of India
- ❖ To make students to analyze the role of Public Finance in Economic Development

UG and PG students of our college as well as Dr Ambedkar college participated in this one day workshop. Dr. Kranti Borawake, Coordinator of the programme initially explained the objectives of the workshop. Prof. Dr. Mane S. N gave introductory speech. In First session, 11 students of Baburaoji Gholap College and 11 students of Dr. Ambedkar college made a PPT presentation on current Budget-2024-25 as well as its various aspects. The presentations given by the students were excellent. Faculties of economics department of both colleges guided them for the preparation of PPT presentations.

In Second Session, Dr. Devaki Rathod and Mr. Sagar Kamble of Dr Ambedkar College guided the students. First Speaker of the workshop Dr. Devaki Rathod reviewed the Union Budget 2024-25. She initially explained that how current Interim Budget presented by Finance Minister is different than normal budget. She discussed how we should look at the Union budget from a different perspective as an economics student. While earning and spending income at the level of whole economy, the welfare of people in the economy is being maximized or not, whether inequality will be reduced or not, who will get employment opportunities and in which sector and whether this will speed up the economy. She explained that all these things are important while discussing Union Budget. She had analysed how deficit Budget is not always wrong.

Mr. Sagar Kamble initially explained the highlight of Union budget-2024-25. He discussed provision of expenditure made in current budget on major schemes such as Mahatma Gandhi, National Rural Employment Guarantee Program, National Health Mission. Also, gave an information about the new schemes which have been launched for rural areas and how much has been spent on rural sectors in the budget.

Dr. Balkrishna Zaware, Principal of the College, gave guidance on the share of agriculture sector in total GDP. He expressed regret about the provision of expenditure for agriculture sector and education in the current budget. Dr. Balkrishna Zaware appreciated the active and studious participation of students in this workshop. Prof. Dr. Mane S. N Head, Department of Economics, Baburaoji Gholap College, introduced the program.

Dr. Dipali Chinchwade, Dr. Rohini Yewale, Mr. Santosh Sasturkar Dr. Kranti Borawake took effort for the success of the workshop . Mr. Maruti Kamble and Rhushikesh Hiwale evaluated PPT presentations given by the students. Five outstanding students were selected from the PPT presentation. They are as follows:

- 1.Syali Gaysamure, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar College, Pune - 1st Prize
- 2.Smita Kumbhar, Baburaoji Gholap College Sangvi, Pune. – 2nd Prize
- 3. Gadekar Pooja, Baburaoji Gholap College Sangvi, Pune. – 3rd Prize
- 4. Ragini Deshmukh, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar College, Pune - Consolation Prize
- 5. Zarin Zarekari, Baburaoji Gholap College Sangvi, Pune - Consolation Prize

❖ Outcome of the Workshop – Students learn various concepts related to union budget. Their perspective about studding budget became wider. They understand that Policies such as deficit budget during deflation and excess budget during inflation assist in balancing the prices in the economy. Students learned to analyse the role of Public Finance in Economic Development.
